NEWS, PRODUCT REVIEWS, IN THE NEWS, PRODUCT REVIEWS: CHOCOLATE AND CANDY

Updated for 2015! Our team of Go Dairy Free reviewers has taste-tested dozens of dairy-free chocolates (it's a tough job, but someone has got to do it), and the following chocolate gifts won our top marks for fun and festive, sensationally smooth and creamy, or downright indulgent.

Set the Bar High with these Chocolate Gifts

1. Dear Coco made us swoon with their wide array of Artisan Chocolate Toffee Bars. They start with creamy, all-natural dairy-free dark chocolate and then layer it with shards of rich vegan toffee, followed by nuts or seeds. With numerous globally-inspired bars to choose from five-spice, white sesame Shanghai to almond Barcelona, you are better off gifting the entire set. They are dairy-, egg-, and gluten-free. Dear Coco offers other amazing chocolate gifts, including truffles, artisan tiles, seasonal bars, and hot chocolate spoons! (For more info, see our full review here)
